

IDEA to be focus of the Direction-statement	Direction statement, inclusive of the idea. (Include what will evoke passion, energy, urgency ... reflect spirit of SSJ charism and mission)
1) transformation	We invest time, energy and resources to a process of inner work, opening ourselves to personal and communal transformation
2) advocacy	We listen and respond to the cry of women and children and advocate for racial equity and immigration reform
3) care of earth	We foster connection with people and the land to nurture healing of our wounded Earth.
4) healing presence	We go forward in a contemplative way of being seeking to be a healing presence in the world.
